DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume IX.

There will be a temperance meeting at the Court House to-night. Every body invited.

There will be preaching in the church at Leestown Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week. All are invited to attend.

The Board of Shaking Fund Commissioners of the city of Frankfort have redeemed thirteen thousand dollars of the city school bonds, leaving outstanding of these bonds to date ten thousand dollars.

The city has sold to Mr. Michael Sullivan fifteen feet more of the market house property, at thirty dollars per front foot on Market street. They have also agreed to sell to Mr. C. C. Jennings at the same price twelve or fifteen feet of some property. This latter sale when completed will leave the city owning about 42 feet near the centre of the lot, which they have offered to Maj. Bloom, of Lagrange, at the same figure.

The hose of the city fire department cannot be attached to the fire plugs put up by the Frankfort Water Company for the reason that the connection is not the same size as the hose. The Company have proposed to furnish the city four reducing butts, to be used in the attachment, which the Water and Fire Committee of the City Council have under consideration. Whether this will meet the case the Committee will inquire.

LATEST NEWS.

Mrs. Harris has just returned from the east where she has selected a very large line of French millinery in all the latest novelties, and I am ready to take orders. I have employed extra help in order to make up for lost time. I have also purchased an elegant line of fancy dry goods and notions. You will find all the latest novelties which could be bought in New York city at my establishment. Examine my stock before purchasing, as my prices will satisfy everybody. Remember the place, 224 St. Clair street, Frankfort, Ky., next door to McClure Bros.

to HARRIS.

Owing to the frequent bursting of the water pipes we have not been able to get our water motor in operation, but taking advantage of the pressure put on the main for a short time Thursday afternoon, we "let her go," and it performed beautifully. A number of gentlemen of experience in handling machinery were present, and all pronounced the power much better than steam, the motion of the wheel being very steady, regular, and almost noiseless. The plumbing work for the machine was executed by Mr. J. T. Buckley, and was as tight as a jug. His workmen, Messrs. Ed. and Harry Clasing, understand their business thoroughly, and we take pleasure in recommending these young men to anyone wishing a machine of the kind set up, or plumbing work of any kind executed.

EDUCATIONAL.

Doctors, lawyers, merchants and other gente men sit upon our School Board and act in a way which if it had been followed in their regular business, would have sent them all to the poor-house. The only question that they successfully grapple with is how to cut down the wages of teachers.

To save two hundred dollars in money they will sacrifice ability and worth.

Please give the schools some little of the tact you put into your own affairs.—Arkansas Traveler.

The beginning is the chiefest part of any work, especially in young and tender minds. It is in the time in which the character is formed and must readily receive the desired impression.—Plato's Republic.

Children have more need of models than of critics.—Joubert.

Education should be tender and severe, not cold and sauvage.

One cause of pulmonary trouble is a stooping posture. No words need such iteration by American teachers as "sit up!"—Connected School Report.

BRIDGEPORT.

Shout and turnips

Hickory-nuts, walnuts and grapes.

The scarlet fever has about subsided. We have had considerable rain this week.

Mr. W. T. Russell made a business trip to Louisville this week.

Charlie Jenkins has purchased the home from a visit to friends in Indiana.

Mrs. John Daniels and daughter, Mrs. Katie Chambers have returned home from a visit to Louisville.

Charlie Julian has so far recovered from the injuries he recently received by his horse falling with him as to be able to be out again.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association convened in Frankfort Public School Building Saturday, Oct. 10, 1885.

The meeting was one of unusual interest. Each one endeavoring to interest to make the occasion profitable and to advance the educational interest in our county. From present indications a brighter day is in store for us in this grand Commonwealth. Teachers and parents alike are awake to a full realization of the responsibility that rests on them.

The address of Prof. J. B. Lea on "Compulsory Education" was a masterly effort, reflecting great credit on the young gentleman. Long live Prof. Lea!

Col. John L. Scott's address on the manner in which his private school is conducted was very ably presented, convincing all present of its fitness.

The thanks of the association, by a unanimous vote, were extended to Col. for this manifestation of interest in education.

Col. T. B. Ford was also present and rendered valuable aid in his usual eloquent style.

Mrs. J. B. Lea and C. H. Parrent, residents teachers of Bridgeport, invited the Association to hold its next meeting in their schoolroom, which will be opened the first Saturday in November at 10 o'clock sharp was designated as the time when we hope to see a full representation of teachers present. It is also earnestly requested that trustees and patrons will make an extra effort to be present. Adequate provision will be made for refreshments.

Col. T. B. Ford and L. P. Huber were appointed a committee in regard to Franklin County Historical Society.

DESBONIA.

Mrs. Ella Pattle left for her home in Texas Monday.

Mr. J. W. Payne was around shaking the bags up last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. E. F. Price paid all of Alton Hamilton's farm north of Bear Creek, the sum of $200.

Mr. W. D. McElroy has settled down to house-keeping—the happiest man living.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Ed. Coleman, Memphis, attorney for Oscar McAdoo, has removed to the Robinson farm from Cedar Run.

Tobacco crop is saved without damage by frost.

Farmers about through sowing wheat, with considerably increased acreage.

We predict that few swarms of bees will be throbbing this coming winter.

Born, on the 23d inst., to Mr. Allen Clark and wife, a son.

Esg. J. B. Hamilton is erecting a spacious barn.

Benson wants a blacksmith and a physician. A good point for either or both.

Benson has less litigants than any town in the country.

About 60 sheep have been killed by dogs in this neighborhood within the past two weeks. How many assessors do their duty in assessing dogs? If a few of them did their duty, we might be rid of this pest.

For filling to the top, in this respect, it would be welcome.

I nominate Col. T. B. Ford for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

I present him as the champion friend of common school education in the State of Kentucky. I name him as the man in whose hands I would rather have the fate of the country than increased per capita.

I present him as a "thoroughgoing, conscientious gentleman of the broader type, who will not set idly by me and the common fund, robid of its resoures; I present him as the man to whom Kentucky owe a debt of honor for his championship of what is right and almost friendless, even against the pretensions of the present incumbents.

Tom Ford being a modest, unassuming gentleman, seems not to desire the prominence and credit he deserves. Come out, Tom, and let the public know to whom credit is due. If Kentucky possesses gratitude you and I, the people vote intelligently, you will win.

Glad to learn Prof. James B. Lea has abandoned the idea of buying a farm, with the view of investing his bottom dollar in a ship. "Sic transit, however incredible

Credula res armor est.

A NEW KING OF THE THROAT!

"Malaria," is a "popular ailment," has given place to a new patient.

If you have Rheumatism now, the medical wiseacres exclaim—"Urle Acid!"

If you have frequent headaches, they safely remark—"Urle Acid!"

If you have softening of the brain, they say—"Urle Acid!"

If Sciatica, or Neuralgia make life miserable, it is—"Urle Acid!"

If your skin breaks out in Bolls and Pimplies, it is—"Urle Acid!"

If you have Abscesses and piles, "Urle Acid!" has set your blood on fire.

If you have dull, languid feelings, headache, kidney or bladder troubles, gout, gravel, poor blood, are ill at ease, threatened with paralysis or apoplexy, vertigo are bilious, drop-sited, constipated or dyspeptic—"Urle Acid!" is the key to the situation, the cause of all your ills.

We must know wherein Malaria will take kindly to this Masculine Usurper, but he has evidently come to stay.

"Urle Acid!"—this monster, is the product of the decomposition—death—constantly abiding place within us, and there is no greater danger than to free the system, through the kidneys, of masses of some great blood specific like Warner's safe cure, while Senator B. K. Bruce says snatched him from its grasp, there is not the least doubt but that it will utterly ruin the strongest human constitution.

It is not a young fellow by any means. It has a long and well-known line of ancestors. It is undoubtedly the father of a very great family of diseases, and though it may be the fashion to ascribe progeny to it that are not its own, there can't be doubt that it is the mother of all our woes.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 24, 1885.

The game law expired on Tuesday, Oct. 20th, and the hunters have been out in force since, making the welkin ring. Bob White will be put to it to save himself during the next few weeks. Should he escape the vigilance of the Spring Hill Club and their dogs, he must run the gauntlet of the army of other hunters and small boys, who seem bent on exterminating him from the fields and meadows. His only safety is in the thickets, which may afford him protection against the leaden hail of the breech-loader. Rabbits are reported more abundant, and are making their appearance upon the market.

Mrs. Mary Brown Major, wife of Col. S. I. Major, and oldest daughter of Col. Robt. W. Scott, died in Louisville on Saturday evening last. Her remains were brought to this city, and the funeral took place from the Episcopal Church on Monday morning. She had been in failing health for some months, notwithstanding which, the announcement of her death was quite a shock to this city. She was a cultivated and refined lady, and beloved by a large circle of friends, not only in this city, but throughout the State. Her husband and little son have sustained a great loss, and the community feels that one of its brightest social lights has been extinguished.

Complaint was made to the City Council at its last meeting, in the form of a petition from property owners, of the disorderly condition of that portion of the city known as "Craw" and asking the appointment by the City Council of an additional policeman to patrol that portion of the town. The matter was referred to the Police Committee, who reported on Friday night last that the police on that beat had been vigilant, and that within the last month there had been less lawlessness in that part of the city than at any time in the last two years. The committee ask the co-operation of the good people in their efforts to suppress crime, and recommended that one of the South Frankfort police be placed upon that beat, which report was adopted.

Death of S. N. Hodges.

On Tuesday afternoon this community was shocked by the announcement of the death of Col. S. N. Hodges, a prominent lawyer of this city. About half past eleven o'clock on that day he was sitting at his desk in his office writing, when he was seized with a sudden illness which resulted fatally at four o'clock on that afternoon. So severe was his suffering that he could not be removed to his home, but died in the bed-room of Dr. James, which adjoined his office. He received all the attention that his friends and medical skill could render.

Col. Hodges was about 46 years of age, a native of this county, and a son of Rev. F. H. Hodges. He was a graduate of Georgetown College, and also a graduate of the Louisville Law School, and entered upon the practice of his chosen profession before he had reached his majority in partnership with the late Nat. Wolfe, Esq., of Louisville, Ky. In 1869 he canvassed a large portion of the State as Elector on the Breckinridge and Lane ticket. At the beginning of the late war he enlisted with Stark's Cavalry, in the cause of the South, and engaged in several bloody battles. Upon his return home he resumed the practice of law in this county, which he continued until his death, meeting with well merited success. In the death of Col. Hodges the community has lost a valuable and useful citizen, his family kind and indulgent husband and father, and his family and friends have his sincere sympathy of everybody, a large assemblage of friends attended his funeral, which took place from the Baptist Church in this city on Wednesday afternoon, after which he was laid in the family grave yard on Okhorn in this county.

The first quarterly meeting of the present conference year will be held at the Methodist Church to-day and tomorrow. Services at 10 o'clock to-day and 8 o'clock of Lord's Supper tomorrow at 11 o'clock service. Rev. Jos. Rand, Presiding Elder, will preach at each service and also at night. The public are invited to attend.

A meeting of citizens of Lexington was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Court-house for the purpose of exacting a pledge from all candidates not to use money in elections. Those present were among the best citizens of Lexington, but action was postponed until last night. This is a move in which all good people should join, and we suggest that such a movement be set out foot in this city and county. We have had so many disgraceful elections here on account of the use of money and whisky that a large portion of our people have abstained from exercising the elective franchise on account of the rabble that surround the polls. We make the suggestion to voters and candidates as the people need relief from the demoralizing effects of such means in election, the candidates need relief from the bleeding process and to save not only their money but their self-respect, and the country needs relief in that the best men may be selected, and qualification and merit be raised as the standard to preference to merit.

Mr. J. Andrew Cain and Miss Christina McEwan were married at the Methodist Church on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, tropical plants, and evergreens by the young ladies, who displayed excellent taste in their arrangement. The church was filled with the friends of the young couple, who felt a deep interest in the happy event. The ushers were E. L. Banta, Ben McEwan, E. W. Hines and George L. Payne. Prof. Wayland Graham presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march in an accomplished manner. At the appointed hour the bridal pair entered the church and were preceded down the aisle by the ushers, and formed in front of the altar, when the pastor of the church, Rev. G. C. Kelly, in a brief and impressive manner performed the ceremony. After the service the bridal party repaired to their future home on Lewis street, east of Capitol square, which had been elegantly prepared by the groom with all necessities for house-keeping. The bridal presents were numerous and handsome. The happy pair enter the voyage of married life with every evidence of a bright and prosperous future. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Wm. McEwan, and is a beautiful and amiable young lady, worthy to adorn the home of the one she has chosen for a life partner. The groom is a young man of sterling qualities, and well deserving the prize he has won. May their wedded life be a perpetual honey-moon, with ever increasing joys, unmarrowed by the ravages of time.

The following is a list of the presents received, viz:

One dozen individual butter dishes, hand painted; Dr. J. S. Price and wife; silver pickel castor, Miss Nellie Fellner; glass pitcher; Mrs. W. George; silver berry basket; Mrs. W. George; silver dove glasses; Mr. J. H. Godfrey and daughter; Japanese water; Miss Manrie Powell; silver cake basket; R. H. L. Clark; rocking chair; Mrs. Jane Brown; Harness; Moz; one doz. napkins; Misses Carrie and Tenie McEwan; set of pearl jewelry and set of table spoons from the groom.

The mast is heavy this fall, the acorn and hickory nut crop being larger than for several years. Walnuts are plentiful, and the small boy with his wagon will be out to-day harvesting for the winter evening. We are glad to see the care taken by our farmers generally to preserve the young walnut trees that spring up on their lands. By this systematic protection, in a few years the walnut timber will add greatly to the wealth of the county. Black haws and grapes are abundant, and the beautiful autumn tinge to the foliage of the hill side and woodland invite to a ramble through the woods, and to the contemplation of the Merciful Father through the bounties and beauties of nature.

WANTED!

Having purchased the stock of goods, &c., of Mr. L. B. Marshall, we have made a thorough search through the stock, and have determined to close out all surplus goods in the house. We have selected an assortment of goods and want the trade to call and see them. These have accumulated from among the best lines of goods, and will be sold at prices that will astonish you. We want customers for them, and will have them.

The Good Templars Lodge will meet Thursday night in Masonic Hall. All the members are requested to attend.

Presiding Elder Rev. J. Rand will conduct quarterly meeting services at the Methodist Church to-day at 11 a.m., and on to-morrow at the usual hour of service. Women's missionary meeting to-day at 4 p.m. Love feast to-morrow at 4 p.m.

The Louisville Pre-buryer convened with the South Frankfort Church on Monday evening and continued in session Tuesday. Some twenty-five or thirty delegates were present, and the business of the Presbytery taken up in regular order and disposed of. On Tuesday night Dr. Robt Morris delivered an entertaining and instructive lecture on the Holy Land, which was enjoyed by a large congregation.

The Water Company are having great trouble with the pipe laid in the streets, especially with the laid in the main on Main and Broadway streets. It being the old pipe which was taken up from between the city and the old reservoir, and relaid in those streets, will not stand the pressure from the new works, and the water cannot be turned on the clay for any length of time before a section of it bursts. It is hoped that the defective sections will all be found in a few days and then the trouble will be over. So far all the tests of the new works have been very satisfactory, and show that when everything is in good working trim Frankfort will have a water supply equal to any city in the country.

It is hoped that the defective sections will all be found in a few days and then the trouble will be over. So far all the tests of the new works have been very satisfactory, and show that when everything is in good working trim Frankfort will have a water supply equal to any city in the country.

The mast is heavy this fall, the acorn and hickory nut crop being larger than for several years. Walnuts are plentiful, and the small boy with his wagon will be out to-day harvesting for the winter evening. We are glad to see the care taken by our farmers generally to preserve the young walnut trees that spring up on their lands. By this systematic protection, in a few years the walnut timber will add greatly to the wealth of the county. Black haws and grapes are abundant, and the beautiful autumn tinge to the foliage of the hill side and woodland invite to a ramble through the woods, and to the contemplation of the Merciful Father through the bounties and beauties of nature.

FRESH & COMPLETE

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 24, 1885.

The Louisville Exposition closes today.

A fine black Ostrich tip for 25 cents at Sol. Harris'.

Messrs. John W. Millan and Logan McKee will shortly establish a grist and hominy mill in this city.

Col. L. P. Tarlton, of Fleetwood stock farm, gives notice through our advertising columns that all trespassers by shooting will be prosecuted.

Rev. J. J. Chisholm, of Harrodsburg, will preach at the Southern Presbyterian Church in South Frankfort to-morrow at 10 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m.

Go to Chiles' drug store to have your prescriptions carefully compounded.

The grand Jury failed to find a true bill against Mrs. Jennie Clark, who was charged with having furnished her husband, who is a convict, with two pistols to aid in his escape.

Our new bell at the Court-house is cracked and its harsh notes grate upon the ear. It has only been in use a few weeks, and was either of inferior quality, or has been handled roughly.

Messrs. Meagher Bros. will have the front of their store-room on Main street turn out, the stairway leading to the upper rooms from the street taken down, and a new plate glass front put in.

Go to Chiles' drug store for pure spices.

Rev. G. W. Bryant, colored, who made quite an enviable reputation in this city, while in charge of the St. John's A. M. E. Church last year, was hung in effigy by the colored people of Nashville last week.

From present indications the Distilleries hereabouts will shortly commence operations. They are all undergoing repairs and getting ready, the cooper shops are all running and it looks like business would speedily commence.

The distilleries are all being overhauled and undergoing repair, making ready for the season's run, and will soon begin operation. The cooper shops are busy, and this branch of industry will soon enliven the business of our city, and furnish employment for a number of hands. This is one of our chief arteries of trade, and its pulsations are felt throughout the whole body corporate.

Go to Chiles' drug store for pure elder vinegar.

The subject of good roads is one of prime importance to the county, and we are glad to note the interest which our County Court and citizens are giving to the subject. There is quite a boom in turnpikes, and several roads are under contract in the western and northern portions of the county, and are being pushed forward before bad weather sets in. Nothing enhances the value of property nor adds to the convenience of our citizens more than good roads. Let's have more of them.

The largest variety of fancy feathers at Sol. Harris'.

All the teachers are requested to be present and the friends of education are cordially invited.

For the indefinite aches and pains of nervous patients Tongue is superior to any other analgesic. For nervous headache or muscular rheumatism it is almost a specific.

PARK RITCHIE, M. D., St. Paul, Minn.

A fine black silk velvet worth $1.50 for $1. at Sol. Harris'.

From the Courier-Journal, Louisville, Sept. 24, 1885.

The attendance last night was very large, to witness the performance of Gonton's Original New Orleans Minstrels. The first part was very fine, the singing being new and the witty sayings and conundrums fresh, all of the old chestnuts having been eliminated.

Mr. George W. Franklin, pianist, solo, accompanied by the Golden Band. After the overture, "Caraval de Ethiope."

Messrs. Pearl, Stiles, Dillon, Graham and Lambson went through a faucon military drill, statue and combat clod dance, dressed in very neat all of his songs and sayings.

Dillon and Graham did a very fine Irish (white face) turn. This is an innovation in the burnt-cork profession. These two performers are good dialect artists, and work well in either color. The performance concluded with a very laughable afterpiece entitled "Hannamik." The same programme will be continued on the week.

At the Opera House Monday evening, November 2d.

A protracted meeting commenced at Buck Run Church, at Sunbury; preached by Bro. Wheatley.

The bride and groom (Mr. Jno. Reddy and wife) spent the day with the groom's mother on Oct. 16. They seem as happy as a big sun flower.

Misses Jennie Featherston, Jennie Goddard, and Jennie Macklin came home last Friday week, and are staying at Sunbury and returned last Monday to Georgetown, where they are attending College.

Mr. W. T. Featherston made a short visit to Owen county last week and while there bought 5 head of nice fat heifers that will average 900 lbs. each, out of which the first one is some other attraction in sweet Owen for our young bachelor friend besides his cattle.

Married.—Oct. 15, at the residence of the bride, one mile northeast of the Forks, by the Rev. W. Williams, Mr. Jno. Reddy and Mrs. Lee Miller, and the following lines was the toast offered:

"Two hearts beat as one—
Two souls are joined in one,
God with you both till life is done."

Poor Alf., has got the blues, since the two flocks he can't understand have escaped him. He is married and his poor fellow, is left—left alone to face the cold bleak winds of the coming winter with no smiling face of a sweet little wife to cheer him, no soft hand to touch him and arouse him from his reverie; no living arms to clasp him in a tender embrace. Cheer up, my fellow, and take courage, pull your hook with care, flowers, bears and you will after a little while get a bite.

Bald Knob.

Most in abundance. The shooting class met at Mr. John Brewer's Sunday night.

There were 10 additions to the church at Lebanon last church-meeting day.

There is another store opened at the Fork. Opposition is the life of trade.

MARRIED.—At Jeffersonville, Ind. Oct. 20th, Mr. L. P. Moore and Miss Lila Redmond.

We wish you joy, dear loving friends, and many happy days to come; May peace and love your steps attend, And dwell forever in your home.

There is great complaint among our boys about the scarcity of rabbits. They say "Bob and Pete" have spoiled all their fun in that line, and that they each have a barrel of rabbits salted down. Do give the boys a chance.

Remember that next Saturday will be the teachers' "Gala Day" at Bridgeport, and we hope to see every common school teacher in the county there. Come out, fellow-teachers, and show your strength and your interest in the cause, bring all your friends with you, and try and get your trustees to come also.

The matrimonial fever is spreading this way rapidly and fears are entertained that some of our citizens will be attached soon. Those just below us who have never been married, far afield, Mr. Lynn Lewis and Miss Sally Harrod, Mr. Robert Mitchell and Miss Dragan, Mr. Thos. H. Wells and Miss Barbara Hughes. The latter young lady was formerly of this neighborhood. We extend to them all our hearty congratulations.

We wish to say to the citizens of this county that the Teachers' Association will organize itself into an Educational and Historical Association, for the purpose of gathering together and preserving all the facts and incidents relating to the history of this county, and hope that they will give us all the aid and help in the way of collecting facts, etc., etc. Let every teacher constitute him or herself a committee of one to work in this matter.

The handsomest line of Misses and children's hats ever shown in this city at S. J. Harris'!

Happy Thoughts in the Night.

For years Mr. Jas. R. Ackley, of Owen county, has suffered from neuralgia so that he could hardly sleep. But he writes, "One night I was suffering very much, and the thought struck me that Brown's Iron Bitters would do me some good, and perhaps cure me. It was a happy thought, and to my great joy it has done its work. I am now sleeping well again. After three months I have had no return of the symptoms. I cheerfully recommend it as the best tonic I have ever used". Neuralgia sufferers, take my word.

Woodlark.

Ed. Roundabout.

DEAR SIR: Thinking the readers of your valuable paper would like a few lines from this end of the country, I will give what news there is:

All the farmers busy sowing wheat. Our schools are in a flourishing condition.

James Jones is lying quite ill at his father-in-law's, Wick, England.

Wingate & Florian have been quite busy this week pricing tobacco.

Col. Isaac Wingate and W. J. Lewis are in Lexington attending the meeting of the Breeders' Association at that place.

A protracted meeting was commenced at Buck Run Church last Sunday. It is conducted by a very worthy deacon of the church.

Mr. J. W. Payne has just returned from Louisville a protracted visit to relatives in Louisville—the Rev. godly man looks quite happy once more.

Business is very good both at Wingate & Florian's and G. W. Cohen's.

Competition is great, and the people think they can do better here than they can in Frankfort or Georgetown.

There are several new enterprises on foot here now; the first is a new grist mill, to be built on the Ohio river, which when started will be quite a目ake about it, and in the very near future will make a first-class town half way between Frankfort and Georgetown. WOODLARK, No. 3.

Sandrine.

Prof. Jno. Sun Ayres has accepted a chair in the Eclectic business school on the rifle.

Boss Kenney will soon fall heir to a large estate, adjacent to the city of Frankfort, valued at $150,000.

The "Boss" has now on exhibition and for sale, bulls, ratters, pugs and every species known to a rural chinery.

Attorney Fears of Frankfort, delivered an impressive lecture before the public yesterday on the subject of Eczema.

Col. Thomas B. Ford, of Frankfort, is isolated here since his address before the Teacher's Association on State Phances.

An Old Citizen.

Mr. J. M. Norris, an old resident of Rome, Ga., says that he had been badly troubled with Kidney Complaint for a great many years and with Eczema for three years; at times could scarcely walk and had tried many remedies without benefit, until he began taking Electric Bitters and Baking Soda. He has been taking them with Buckley's Arnica Salve. This treatment afforded him great relief and he strongly recommends Electric Bitters to all who suffer with Kidney Complaints, or need a Blood Purifier. Sold by Jos. LeCompte. 3

Hard Times.

While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be cut down in every possible way. Economy, the watch word for masters, and doctor bills by always keeping in the house, a bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. Stops a cough instantaneously, relieves Consumption, cures Croup and pain in the Chest in one night. It is just the remedy for hard times. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Samples free.
